Summer Vacation!

Summer is here! And with summer comes so much activity and opportunities for family get togethers and recreation. I hope everyone is safe this summer as you travel to all kinds of places and either reconnect with family that lives far away or reconnecting with the family that lives under your own roof. Adventures are sure to be had and so many fond memories will be made. As you are traveling this summer, remember a few things:

1. Wherever you go, take God with you!
2. Wherever you go, you are a representative of the Cape Fear church of Christ.
3. Do not dress down to the world's standards, dress up to glorify God.
4. Read your Bible daily.
5. Never miss an opportunity to meet with the saints.
6. Leave your contribution at your local congregation.
7. Do not be a worship “freeloader.” Give something and support the local work where you are visiting.
8. Pray for all who are traveling and thank God when you arrive safely at your destination(s).

Since I will be gone for the next couple of Sundays and unsure if I will be able to produce a bulletin on the first Sunday of July (we will see how I feel), I want to leave you with the next three weeks of Daily Bible Readings. Please pray for me as I travel and know that you will be in my daily prayers for whatever you will be doing or going through while I am away. Will see you when in a few weeks!
